XI Mon. January hath xxxi days.

To show the Strength, and Infamy of Pride,
By all 'tis follow'd, and by all deny'd.
What Numbers are there, which at once pursue
Praise, and the Glory to contemn it too?
To praise himself Vincenna knows a Shame,
And therefore lays a Stratagem for Fame;
Makes his Approach in Modesty's Disguise,
To win Applause, and takes it by Surprize.

See Wealth and Pow'r! Say, what can be more great?
Nothing,—but Merit in a low Estate.
To Virtue's humblest Son let none prefer.
Vice, tho' a Cræsus or a Conqueror
Shall Men, like Figures, pass for high, or base,
Slight, or important, only by their Place?
Titles are Marks of honest Men, and Wise;
The Fool, or Knave that wears a Title, lies.
